CORAM : D.B.BHOSALE, J.
DATED : 9TH AUGUST, 2007.

P.C.:

. Learned counsel for the petitioner and the applicants - original respondents stated that they have amicably settled the dispute. Mr.Bobade, learned counsel for the petitioner in company petition No.259 of 2000 submits that he has instructions to withdraw company petition in view of the settlement. By the order dated 13.7.2007 this court had directed the petitioner to advertise withdrawal of the petition in view of the fact that the petition for winding up was admitted. The petitioner, accordingly, advertised withdrawal of the petition in Free Press Journal and Navshakti. The publication of the advertisement though, as directed, is not in Maharashtra Times, in my opinion, compliance of advertising withdrawal of the petition in Navshakti, in view of the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, is a good compliance. No one has come forward to oppose withdrawal of the petition. Company Petition No.259 of 2000 is, accordingly, disposed of as withdrawn. Consequently, company application No.995 of 2006 also stands disposed of.
